

Edinburgh Leisure

EDINBURGH THEATRES AND THEATRE BREAKS

- View our latest Edinburgh theatre breaks

Edinburgh, Scotland's vibrant capital city, boasts a wonderfully diverse theatre scene, showcasing some of the brightest home grown talent to the biggest blockbusters straight from London's West End and numerous talents from across the world, especially during the Edinburgh International Festival and the Fringe Festival.

Edinburgh's Playhouse Theatre has established itself as Scotland's host to big budget, all star shows & musicals straight from London's West End and around the globe.

- What's on at the Edinburgh Playhouse Theatre

The Festival Theatre is the capital's arena for Scottish Opera and Scottish Ballet and is at the heart of the Edinburgh International Festival.

- What's on the Edinburgh Festival Theatre

Royal Lyceum Theatre Company is home to one of Scotland's leading producing theatres. The company's main output is their season of high quality dramatic productions, running from September to May in the Royal Lyceum Theatre Edinburgh.

- What's on at the Royal Lyceum Theatre Edinburgh

Kings Theatre Edinburgh - Dating back to the early 1900's - houses visits from the Royal National Theatre as well as other major touring drama productions and the local amateur societies' productions.

- What's on at the Kings Theatre Edinburgh

Traverse Theatre Edinburgh, Scotland's famous new writing theatre and home of the legendary Traverse Bar Cafe, produces and hosts the best contemporary plays from Scotland and overseas and is a leading venue for the Edinburgh Fringe Festival.

- What's on at the Traverse Theatre Edinburgh